

The Life and Times of Norman Borlaug Lecture

Event Date:

Tue, Mar 25, 2014

Todd Brethauer, USBG Science Education Volunteer

This lecture commemorates the centenary of Norman Borlaug's birth. His decades of dedicated work, agricultural insights and skill as a plant breeder provided farmers around the world choices in what they planted offering them new paths to higher yields and food and financial security with the right inputs. His honors include the 1970 Nobel Peace Prize and the 2007 Congressional Gold Medal. Please note: This lecture is offered twice. The evening lecture is a repeat of the midday lecture.

Date: Tuesday, March 25

Time: 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Location: Conservatory Classroom

FREE: This program has been cancelled at this time. If available, please attend the lecture at noon. Thank you.
